PARTIES TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE INFORMATION

All Investment Advisers need to share personal information to run their everyday business – such as to process your transaction(s), maintain your account(s), respond to court orders or legal investigations.

We DO NOT share your personal information for any other purpose.

If you are a new customer we may begin sharing your information on the day you sign our agreement. When you are no longer our customer, we may continue to share your information only as described in this notice.

Federal law allows you the right to limit the sharing of your non-public information by “opting-out” of the following: sharing for non-affiliates’ everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness; sharing with affiliates who use your information to market to you; or sharing with non-affiliates to market to you. State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Please note, there is no need to opt-out as we DO NOT share your personal information for any of the purposes listed in the prior paragraph.

DEFINITIONS: Affiliates – companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies; Non-affiliates – companies not related by common ownership or control.
